Forest Minister Umesh Katti no more

One-day State mourning; Last rites today at Bellada Bagewadi in Belagavi

Bengaluru, Sept. 7 (UNI & Agencies)- Minister Umesh Katti died of a heart attack late last night. He was 61 and was in charge of the Forest, Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Departments.

According to family sources, the Minister collapsed in the bathroom of his Dollars Colony home. He was then rushed to M.S. Ramaiah Memorial Hospital, where he breathed his last. A record eight-time Legislator from Belagavi district, Katti held several Ministerial posts.

Dr. Aruna Ramesh, head of Emergency Services at Ramaiah Hospital, said the Minister suffered a massive heart attack. "He was brought in at 10.30 pm. He was unconscious, wasn't breathing and did not have a pulse. As a routine, it is considered a cardiac arrest. Despite all our efforts, we could not revive him. At 11.40 pm, we declared him dead," she said.

Katti's body was airlifted from Hindustan Aeronautics Limited (HAL) Airport in Bengaluru to Belagavi this noon after a five-hour wait. The body was kept in an ambulance at the Airport. The flight later landed at Sambra Airport in Belagavi.

The delay was due to the late arrival of the special flight from Hyderabad due to extreme weather conditions. Katti's wife Sheela, daughter, son and brother and former MP Ramesh Katti accompanied the mortal remains in the special flight.

The State Government has announced one-day mourning as a mark of respect to the departed soul and a State funeral has been announced with the arrangements being made for the last rites at Katti's farmhouse in Bellada Bagewadi in Hukkeri taluk of Belagavi. The mortal remains will be laid to rest today next to the grave of his parents. All procedures will be done after the public viewing till 2 pm at Sankeshwara.

He was in Mysuru exactly a month ago

Mysuru, Sept. 7 (MTY&BCT)- Exactly one month ago, on Aug. 7, Minister Umesh Katti was in Mysuru for the Dasara Gajapayana and this was his last visit to the Heritage City. He was excited to flag off the elephant march from Veeranahosahalli, on the fringes of Nagarahole National Park, to Mysuru, signalling the official start of Dasara.

Criticised on social media for wearing footwear during the Gajapayana Puja rituals, Umesh Katti later clarified that the shoe was made of cotton and not leather. "I wore it as I am aged and my legs are delicate," he had clarified.

Speaking to reporters during Gajapayana, Umesh Katti said that he had come to see the elephant march as a Minister for the first time. "I came to Dasara many times as MLA and as a common man. But as the Forest Minister, I am here for the first time. I will come for the grand Dasara celebrations and be with you to enjoy the moments," he had said on Aug. 7. But fate willed otherwise.

Leopard scare around RBI campus

- Holiday declared for Kendriya Vidyalaya students since Sept. 1
- Forest Department places three cages to trap elusive felines

Mysuru, Sept. 7 (MTY&BCT)- Frequent sightings of over three leopards near the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) campus at Metagalli, Bank Note Printing Press, the premises of staff quarters and near the Kendriya Vidyalaya have caused panic among residents.

CCTVs installed in the areas have captured the visuals of a mother leopard with three juveniles roaming in the night.

Residents told Star of Mysore this morning that they are scared even to venture out of their homes and this morning, the head of a dog was found near the staff quarters.

"Leopards have been on the prowl in the vicinity and we have alerted residents and students through WhatsApp and are on guard. Over the last few days, the population of dogs has drastically reduced," a resident said.

The management of Kendriya Vidyalaya has declared holiday for children. "The safety of children is of paramount importance for us and we have declared holiday since last Thursday. The RBI has issued a directive to us to shut the school to ensure the safety of children," said a source from the Kendriya Vidyalaya this morning.

Arun Machaiah at Commonwealth Karate Championship

Mysuru, Sept. 7- C.S. Arun Machaiah, former MLC, Hon. President of Mysore Karate Association, senior Vice-President of Karate India Organisation and President of Akhila Karnataka Sports Karate Association, is representing Team India at the 10th Commonwealth Karate Championship being held at Birmingham in London (UK) from today (Sept. 7).

C.S. Arun Machaiah

The 70-member Indian Team of Karatekas, led by Arun Machaiah, left for London last Sunday. A total of 70 countries are expected to take part in the Championship.

Arun Machaiah has represented India in various International Karate Championships across the globe and has brought laurels to the country.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

India houses some of the best institutions of international standards like the Indian Institute of Science (IISc) and Indian Institutes of Technology, and other competent centres of higher learning like University of Delhi, Central Universities, traditional State Universities with potential for excellence, and emerging private Universities. It is also home to well-known, subject-specific institutions like the Indian Institutes of Management. Their global rankings have improved owing to concerted efforts of the Government. These institutions, which are funded by the Government of India, boast of infrastructure on par with global standards.

The question now is how to transform India's Universities to be in the top 100 or 50 globally. Professionalism coupled with setting time-bound strategic goals by individual institution concerned hold the key. More importantly, they need to strive to improve key indicators that determine world ranking: employer reputation, international student and faculty ratio, citations per faculty, academic reputation, faculty-student ratio and so on.

International student-faculty ratio is a major component deciding world rankings. Students are the best ambassadors for improving University rankings and high proportion of international students improves its reputation globally. For attracting international students, the faculty composition should essentially incorporate international experts for which doors may be opened for international recruitment/lateral entry. These international experts who may be part of professional ranking agencies may enable university's global recognition, inculcating its global awareness and outlook.

The fast-track educational reforms being undertaken by the Government, with improvement in global indicators, may place India among the top.

Grand Dasara: A nostalgic trip

Sir,

The Abracadabra titled "Welcome to Grand Dasara" by K.B. Ganapathy in Star of Mysore dated Aug.28 took me on a nostalgic trip down the memory lane.

I too, in my teens, regularly used to see the Dasara procession, when the last Maharaja, Jayachamaraja Wadiyar along with the Prince, Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar, used to sit in the Golden Howdah on the back of Drona and later, Balarama, who didn't complain of the additional weight on their backs. No one complained about it too.

The presence of the Maharaja was a sight to behold. All this has been chronicled much in detail and is readily available in the public domain.

What KBG missed to write was the choice of films that were screened during Dasara in the 1970s in all the theatres. It was a connoisseurs' delight.

The best films in all regional and international languages (yes, Italian, Swedish, French too along with English!) used to be selected for the film festival. The public had the chance to see films of world renowned Directors like Bergman, Kurusowa, Satyajit Ray, Ritwick Ghatak and a host of others.

Whoever it was in the Committee which chose the films to be screened did a great job. The tickets were heavily subsidised (one or two rupees, not more than that) and the residents of Mysore and the tourists, had the opportunity to see the real classics in celluloid.

In short, the Dasara Film Festival was also one of the star attractions, besides the Exhibition, the illumination, the Circus, the Sports event and the daily cultural programmes at the Palace in the evenings.

Well, those were truly heady days when Mysore city turned itself into a magical one!

Karnataka ahead in tackling cyber crimes, tech misuse: CM

Inaugurates Cyberverse Lab, Cop Connect and Cyber Hygiene programme in Mysuru

Mysuru, Sept. 7 (MK&BCT)- Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai has said that cyber crime, drug mafia and the dark web are new challenges and such new crimes need to be cracked down by using new technology and advanced equipment. "There can be no compromise in the war against cyber crimes and Karnataka has a zero tolerance for criminals and the Cyber Crime wing of Karnataka is one of the best in the country," he said.

The CM was speaking after inaugurating a Cyberverse Lab, Cop Connect and Cyber Hygiene programme that was held at MYRA School of Business in Yelwal last evening. Cyber security is one of the important must-haves in the present day as numerous ways are invented by cyber criminals to cheat institutions, governments and the common man, he added.

"There are new challenges like cyber crime, drug mafia, cracking the dark web, all these new kinds of crimes have to be cracked down by using new technology and using advanced equipment. New technology is invented every day and we need to be prepared to face such challenges. The world-wide-web is crucial for a nation to progress and at the same time, it can ruin a country if precautions are not taken," Bommai said.

Cop Connect

Lauding Cop Connect, the CM said that it is a novel initiative which will ensure cyber security and add strength in checking cyber crimes. "Intelligence of the users is important in the judicious use of technology but what we have now is a history of misuse of this intelligence. It is important to give prominence to values and morality while gaining expertise in the field of technology," Bommai said.

Cop Connect will help solve cyber security incidents and create a conducive atmosphere and bringing together cyber psychiatrists, cyber advocates and forensic experts to find solutions. "It will also help create awareness on cyber crimes and provide instant solutions immediately after the crime and book the criminals, he added.

Cop Connect is a unique initiative to facilitate early resolution of cyber-related incidents like privacy breaches, loss of data, financial fraud, cyber-bullying, etc., in an environment which is friendly and comfortable for a victim.

Cybercriminals have the upper hand

The CM observed that advanced equipment, technology, manpower and resources are available to companies and governments but in spite of this, cyber thieves always achieve an upper hand.

He lauded the efforts of Wadiyars of Mysore in bringing an overall development of the Mysuru region. "The same is being continued in the field of cyber security by the scion of Mysore royal family Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar and his wife Trishikha Kumari Wadiyar," Bommai said.

Higher Education, IT&BT, Science & Technology, Skill Development, Entrepreneurship and Livelihood Minister Dr. C.N. Ashwathnarayan said that cyber security is a three-trillion-dollar industry and the Cyberverse Laboratory in Mysuru is the eighth such laboratory in India.

"Mysuru will be a cybersecurity and semiconductor industry hub in the near future as Israel-based ISMC Analog Fab Private Limited will set up a Semiconductor Fab Plant in Mysuru with an investment of Rs. 22,900 crore," he said.

District Minister S.T. Somashekar was the chief guest. Titular Head of Mysore Royal Family and Cyberverse Foundation Advisory Board Chairman Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar presided. MP Pratap Simha, Additional Chief Secretary, Department of Electronics, IT&BT and S&T Dr. E.V. Ramana Reddy, Cyberverse Foundation Chairperson Trishikha Kumari Wadiyar, Karnataka Digital Economy Mission (KDEM) Chairman B.V. Naidu, CEO Sanjeev Gupta and others were present.

Cerclage to manage Cervical Incompetence

Gouri, 34 years old, married for 8 years had eight pregnancy losses. Out of the eight pregnancy losses, four losses were in the first part of pregnancy and four losses were between fourth-seventh months of pregnancy. Looking at her previous history, where she had pregnancy losses between 3-7 months, a decision was taken to do a trans-abdominal cervical cerclage-a stitch placed at the level of internal os or around the cervix through the abdominal route. She conceived again and this was her 9th pregnancy. The abdominal cerclage was still in place. The patient was started on Low Molecular Weight Heparin (LMWH) right from the time that the pregnancy was confirmed to be situated inside the uterus. She was also found to be mild diabetic. At 32 weeks a Doppler showed a falling resistance in middle cerebral artery with uncontrolled hypertension. The patient was taken for Elective LSCS and delivered a male baby weighing 1.65 kgs.

Dr. Devika Gunasheela

Cervical incompetence is a medical condition in which the neck of the womb (cervix) in a pregnant woman begins to open and thin out much before the date that the baby is due to be born. Cervical incompetence may cause miscarriage or pre-term birth during the second and third parts of the pregnancy.

Treatment: Once the problem of incompetence is diagnosed, the condition may be treatable through a surgical procedure called cerclage (stitching the cervix closed). One or more stitches are placed around or through the cervix to keep it tightly closed. This is usually performed after the twelfth week of pregnancy, the time after which a woman is least likely to miscarry for other reasons - but it is not done if there is rupture of the membranes or infection.

Farmer ends life by jumping into Kapila River

Chikkamadanayaka

Nanjangud, Sept. 7 (Chandru& KS)- Depressed over taunting talks by his siblings and their family members, a farmer committed suicide by jumping into Kapila River yesterday.

The deceased farmer is Chikkamadanayaka (75), a resident of Sinduvalli village in the taluk.

He had kept his slippers, senior citizen identity card, towel and a book containing phone numbers on the Hejjige Bridge and jumped into the river.

Last week, Chikkamadanayaka's house had collapsed due to heavy rains and when Tahsildar M. Shivamurthy and Revenue Department officials had come to inspect the house to access the damage, had assured of providing compensation.

But Chikkamadanayaka's siblings and their family members provided false information to the Tahsildar by saying that Chikkamadanayaka had demolished the house himself to get compensation and the house had not collapsed due to rains, it is learnt.

A fight took place between the two families and rumours were spread on Chikkamadanayaka who was also humiliated. Depressed over this, Chikkamadanayaka committed suicide by jumping into Kapila River, according to the complaint lodged by Chikkamadanayaka's family members with Nanjangud Rural Police.

Bharat Jodo Yatra from Kanyakumari to Kashmir

Two from city to walk with Rahul Gandhi for 150 days

Dr. Shushrutha Hedna

S. Pyari Jan

Mysuru, Sept. 7 (MTY&BCT)- Accompanied by 117 core walkers, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi will embark on a 3,750-km 'Bharat Jodo Yatra' on Wednesday, Sept. 8. 52-year-old Rahul Gandhi will walk from Kanyakumari to Kashmir over the course of 150 days and these 117 will be there with him from the start to finish.

The yatra — with the slogan 'mile kadam, jude vatan' (walk together, unite the country) — will begin at 7 am on Sept. 8 and will move in two batches, one from 7 to 10.30 am and the other from 3.30 pm to 6.30 pm. While the morning session will include a lesser number of participants, the evening session will see mass mobilisation.

Among the 117 leaders who will be with Rahul throughout the journey are two people from Mysuru — Dr. Shushrutha Hedna Vishnumurthy, Managing Director of Neurozone, a neurology hospital in Mysuru and S. Pyari Jan, a resident of Rajivnagar in Mysuru, who is a KPCC General Secretary.

In fact, Dr. Shushrutha, also a stroke specialist, will be the only doctor among the 117 core walkers. They were among the five selected from Karnataka. The others are D.L. Srijith, Kiran Mugabasav and Chanabasappa S. Jagali.

The yatra will move through Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh, Delhi, Haryana, Punjab, and Jammu. Each day, the rally will cover 25 to 30 kilometres.

Dr. Shushrutha is well known for his work in the THAR project (Telehealth Advisory for Rural Zone) which is providing free telehealth and health camp for rural populations in and around Mysuru and Kodagu. He is also a philanthropist, health activist, and environmental enthusiast.

Three kinds of participants

Speaking to Star of Mysore, 48-year-old Dr. Shushrutha, who worked in the US for over 15 years, said that while the padayatra would follow a linear path from Kanyakumari to Kashmir for logistical and geographical reasons, every State would have its own padayatra in tandem with the main yatra. There will be three kinds of participants.

"The core people of 117, who will walk the entire distance, will be the 'Bharat Yatri'. The second will be the 'Atithi Yatri,' who will come from States through which the main yatra is not passing. The third will be the 'Pradesh Yatri,' who will be from the States through which the Yatra will pass. Each category will have about 100 people. At a given time, about 300 people will therefore be participating in the padayatra," he explained.

Stay in railway bogey type accommodation

"Participants will not be staying in hotels but in makeshift, 'railway bogey'-type accommodations, hoisted on a trailer. The containers will have a locker and facilities for sleeping and bathing. The rally will move from Tamil Nadu to Kerala and the walkers will enter Karnataka through Gundlupet probably by the end of September. We will then head to Mysuru and proceed to Ballari and Raichur," he explained.

When asked about his walking mission, Dr. Shushrutha said that he was excited to be part of the core walking team though he will have to be away from his family and the medical profession for over five months. "I feel that this is my social obligation and my family is extremely supportive," he said. The rally will give a real picture of India and will enable him to better understand the country's problems, he added.

The other participant in the core walkers from Mysuru is KPCC General Secretary S. Pyari Jan. She has taken part in the 42-day 'Azadi Gaurav Yatra' that was held in April this year from Sabarmati Ashram till the Raj Ghat in New Delhi to commemorate 75 years of Independence. This yatra covered 1,160 kilometres.

Leopard scare: Forest Department places three cages to trap elusive felines

Visuals of the CCTV footage of the leopards are being circulated widely among the residents of the area and the Forest Department has placed three cages in its efforts to trap the felines. But their efforts have not met with any success till now.

Deputy Conservator of Forests (Territorial) K. Kamala Karikalan told Star of Mysore this morning that they had got information about the sighting of a leopard last week.

"Initial reports said that there was only one leopard but now there are more felines. We have placed three cages and our team is on the field," she said.

The Department has deputed ACF Lakshmikanth to handle the situation and he is accompanied by RFOs and a veterinarian.

"Leopards are known to travel two to three kilometres a day and Mysuru outskirts have a considerable leopard population. Leopards like dog meat and usually do not attack human beings. They are nocturnal hunters and they do not hunt during the day. We have spoken to the residents and officers from the RBI and have assured them that there is no need for panic. Also, there is no need to declare holidays for schools," she added.

The Forest Department team is continuously conducting combing operation and eight employees are involved in it. "Leopards do not come to the area where there is human scent. Still, we have taken precautions and the team is in constant vigil. We have asked the residents not to venture out of homes after dark and stay indoors. If it necessitates tranquillisation of felines, we are well-equipped and ready to do so," Kamala Karikalan said.

His father, Vishwanath Katti, was close to my father (S.R. Bommai)," the CM said.

Several members of the State Cabinet were at the hospital where Katti was rushed after complaining of chest pain. Katti's father also died of a heart attack and forced his early entry into politics. 61st Heritage Music Festival at 8th Cross V.V. Mohalla

Amalgam of technique and aesthetics

By Dr. Padmavathi Narasimhan

On the 6th day of the music series at 8th Cross, V.V. Mohalla, Jayanthi Kumaresh and Kumaresh presented a veena-violin duet concert. They were accompanied by Ananth R. Krishnan on mridanga and Giridhara Udupa on ghata.

Jayanthi's playing style truly brings out the voice of the veena in terms of originality in content, technique and virtuosity and expression.

The duo started the concert impressively with the well-known Varna 'Veeri Boni' in Bhairavi by Pachamiriyam Adi Appaiah in Atta Tala. While Kumaresh continued to tune and fine tune his violin sound in his laptop even after 8 pm, Jayanthi dwelt on Kalyani, giving him time. 'Ganapate Mahamate' by Deekshitar, not much heard in concerts, was a welcome choice. Abheri suffered disturbances from Kumaresh, who was still struggling with his laptop. The composition was one of their own.

Vidu. Jayanthi Kumaresh and Vid. Kumaresh presenting a veena-violin concert at 8th Cross, V.V. Mohalla, last evening as part of the 61st Heritage Music Festival organised by SPVGMC Trust. They are accompanied by Vid. Giridhara Udupa on ghata and Vid. Ananth R. Krishnan on mridanga.

Kharaharapriya, adorned with powerful gamakas, was steeped in unalloyed classicism. The raga development was marked by pleasing gamaka-oriented sancharas.

Jayanthi announced that Kumaresh is on a project where he has set each shloka of Saundarya Lahari by Adi Shankaracharya to music in the form of a kriti. The couple chose one such shloka 'Abijnanam', which Kumaresh has set in Kharaharapriya raga. Jayanthi's skill in handling the veena with an expertise and in conveying the lyrical content of the song brought memories of her guru S. Balachander.

The Raga-Tana-Pallavi in Nalinakanti was the highlight of the concert. The raga development was marked by pleasing gamaka-oriented sancharas and both revelled in playing the taanam, exploring the intrinsic beauty of the raga. The pallavi had no sahitya and was set to Adi Tala. A swarakshara pallavi, it was well-essayed with creative combinations. Delectable notes of Vasantha, Kapi, Kalyanavasantha and Hamsanandi were an aural treat.

Interesting exchanges between veena and mridangist Ananth in the course of the swara passages, with the latter virtually reproducing the sounds of Nalanakanti including the Arohana and Avarohana on mridanga brought huge applause from the audience.

In the post-tani part of the concert, the couple played a folk tune in Behag and concluded the concert with Sri Shyamashastri's 'Kamakshi' in Madhyamavathi.

Taniyavartanam by Ananth Krishnan and Giridhara Udupa in Adi Tala two-kalai for the pallavi was characterised by intelligent laya manipulations.

Travelling is a natural trait of a person: Writer

Jagava Suttuva Maye book released

Mysuru, Sept. 7 (PM&TRR)- "Tourism is a disease of the modern world. But travelling is a natural trait of a person since ages," opined writer and journalist Jogi.

He was speaking after releasing the book Jagava Suttuva Maye, written by Suchitra Hegde on Sunday.

The book, published by Kavitha Prakashana was released at a function organised at University of Mysore's Vijnana Bhavan in Manasagangothri.

"At present, many nations are earning revenue through tourism. But personally, I have no interest in tourism, but have interest in travelling. Tourism is a business and it gives same experience to all travellers. For example, if you take the experiences of two persons of their travel, it will be the same. The experience of any two persons should not be the same, but should be different. Different opinions always give a broader view. But there is no such different experience in tourism," the writer added.

Now we have concepts of Food Tourism and Book Tourism. According to the intentions of businessmen of various sectors, various tourisms are being evolved. Similarly, everyone will have his own intentions about tourism," said Jogi and quipped that politicians, while touring foreign nations, are interested in knowing the methods of corruption practiced there.

Observing that travelling is a welcome change from daily routines, the writer said that it will also enable people to understand each other.

Jogi appreciated Suchitra Hegde for bringing out her experiences through a book. "Special effort is required to record travel experiences and that can be seen in every article written by the author. While reading this book, one is tempted to visit the countries and also, a reader will get information about the countries," he concluded.

"In the book, the writer has unveiled the poetic form of narration and while reading this book, poems of many writers pass through our mind. As such, this is Literary Tourism and the book has a poetic style of narration," said G.N. Mohan, journalist and Publisher.

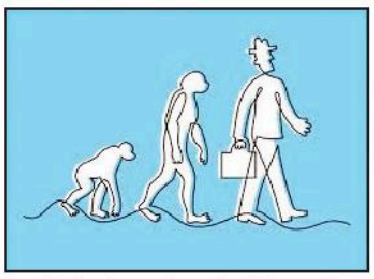
WORD OF THE DAY

Devolve



Pronunciation: dih-VAHLV.
Meaning: Devolve means "to gradually go from an advanced state to a less advanced state," or "to pass something, such as responsibility or power, from one person or group to another person or group at a lower level of authority."
Origin: Evolve? Check. Revolve? Check. Devolve? Now we're on a roll—literally. All three of these words (and more) evolved from the Latin verb volvere, meaning "to set in a circular course, to cause to roll, to bring round." Latin ēvolvere means "to roll out or away"; Latin revolvere means "to roll back to a starting point"; and Latin dēvolvere means "to roll (something) down." In its earliest uses in the 15th century, devolve was about literally rolling down: it meant "to roll onward or downward." Today the word is typically about a more figurative rolling down, as when an organization devolves power—that is, passes power down—to those at a lower level of authority, or when a deteriorating situation is described as "devolving into chaos." One word, multiple uses. That's just how English rolls.
Example: "'Leslie [Jones] and I talk on the phone all the time, and most of our conversations are us complaining about our lives or the crazy world we live in,' [Lenny] Marcus added. 'It usually just devolves into us cracking each other up.'" — Rashad Grove

THE ODD WORD

Darraign

To vindicate; to justify or prove.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Drink like a fish

Meaning: The phrase 'Drink like a fish' is used when discussing someone's tendency toward consuming too much alcohol.
Origin: The origin of the expression 'Drink like a fish' is a clear allusion to a fish's method of breathing, namely to ingest water and pass it over the gills in order to obtain the necessary amount of oxygen. The phrase was first seen in print in 1640, in Fletcher and Shirley's work The Night-Walker, Or The Little Thief: "Give me the bottle, I can drink like a Fish now, like an Elephant."
Example: "It's not a good idea to drink like a fish, especially if you've got to be at work early in the morning."
